Exclusive offer from the Erzgebirge-Palace Those old stoves from back in the days used to be the centerpiece of Grandma's kitchen. All day long, there was something cooking, stewing and bubbling on it. The most delicious scents made it hard for everyone around to stay patient. Grandma scurried around the stove all day and scattered either treats or scolding. Ah, these stoves make us think of lovely times long ago.

This masterpiece from the workshops of Huss inspire with their many functions and additions: You can burn down incense cones, keep your mug warm or melt scented resin. Even a lighter is included. Explore the many sweet details and travel back to times long gone.
