The smokers by KWO Olbernhau are popular classics in the world of Ore Mountain wood crafts. They are well known for their characteristic design, the excellent quality and the large choice of different models.

The well established "Shelf Sitters" are sitting smokers that can be displayed prominently on the edge of a shelf or other furnishing. There are also seats available that are made especially for the KWO shelf sitter smokers, like little benches or frames. These are not included in delivery, but can be ordered separately from the accessories section.
